staunch Republicans say they have been looking for.

Reports from Ohio are all one-sided in making it appear that the President is on a stronger footing there than he has been at any time since the year he was elected to the presidency His course in handling patronage and in personally dealing with the leaders and factions has been beneficial to himself and his party, while the Republican claim is that the Democrata are no longer weil prepared for the hig fight they must make next year.

Tatt supporters are pleased with the growing outlook for party unity next year. One of the most intimate of Senator La Foliette's friends makes the open prediction that the Wisconsin Senator will support Taft after the next convention. He said he believed Mir. La Foliette might carry the fight as far as the convention, but when the nomination was made he would not hesitate to pronounce himself a Republican under all circumstances, and willing to postpone further agitation of his own views until after the No-

Arrests in Chicago Bring to Light Nation-Wide Plan.
Chicago, Ill., June 15.—The arrest of John E. Farris, a conductor on the Illinois Central Rallway, and later his brother, William L. Farris, revealed what United States secret service men said to-day was a nation-wide plan to swindle the transportation companies in the big cities by counterfeit car tickets.
From Farris's home a complete outfit for printing street car tickets was seized. Electrotype and zinc plater for reproducing tickets for street car companies in Cleveland, Columbus, Ohio, and Indianapolis, Ing., were taken.

amended by Mr. Bristow it might result in renewed attempts to enact such legislation as the "force bill" of twenty years ago. As the bill passed the House it vested complete control of senatorial elections in the various State Legislatures. The Bristow provision knocks out that section and gives Congress the same control in the election of Senators by popular vote that it now has over their election by the State Legislatures, and that it has over the election of niembers of the national House of Representatives.

It is contended that under this au-thority, if it saw fit, Congress could appoint Federal registrars and super visors and enforce their decrees we troops if necessary. Washington, D. C., June 15.-Th bate. At adjournment, Senator cally antagonistic to the bill.

A spirited debate among Republican Senators was precipitated over the effect of the Root amendment, dealing with paper and wood puip. Senators Lodge, Clarke, of Wyoming, and Smoot all were on the floor and talking simultaneously. They agreed that that provision only restored the terms of the treaty as submitted to Congress. "How, then, did that feature of the agreement disappear?" asked William Alden Smith, of Michigan.

"Ask the whispering winds," responded Mr. Clarke.

Apparently pleased with the poetic nance with the Canadian bill carrying the agreement into effect.

Mr. Smith was not satisfied, and demanded from Chairman Penrose as explanation of the disappearance of that feature from the bill.

"The change." he said, "occurred in the Ways and Means Committee of the House, and the Senator from Michigan knows as much about it as I do."

"The effect, then, is to give the Canadians free trade in paper and pulp, and not to give it to us." commented Mr. Smith. "And yet," he continued, "we are told by the House that we must not change a word in the bill as it was passed there, for fear of impairing it."
